

Import to Gaza

As the Blockade was stepped up in June 2007 it resulted in a decrease of imports through the border crossings by approximately 80%. In spite of the easing of the blockade policy, as a result of the massive international criticism in connection with the first Flotilla, mainly concerning import of merchandise, this import has remained at a level of only 40% of what it was before the Blockade.

IDF (Israeli Defence Force) has never been willing to conjure a list of which necessities are blocked at the border crossings during the various periods. The Israeli peace organisation Gisha made such a list in June 2010 based on information yielded by the UN, the Red Cross and other relief organisations:
