At 8:06 PM (CEST) we lost contact with the sailing yacht Freedom for Gaza on a mission to break the blockade of the Gaza strip. We have reason to presume that the Israeli Navy has now begun to attack it and that it has been surrounded in International Waters. The latest reported position was about 40 nautical miles from the coast of Gaza. Freedom is carrying a cargo of medical equipment as aid to Gaza. On board are 12 persons, crew, activist and journalists from five countries. Details of all of the participants are here [2]
